

Yeshiva University
Office of the President

Dear Friends,

On behalf of Yeshiva University, it is with deep humility that I share with you that I have been selected to deliver the Benediction at the upcoming U.S. presidential inauguration on January 20th.

This honor is a testament to the prominence of our university – all that we have accomplished together and the many compelling opportunities before us.

The 60th Inaugural Ceremonies, organized by the Joint Congressional Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies, is themed “Our Enduring Democracy: A Constitutional Promise.” My blessing, to be delivered immediately following President Trump’s inaugural address, will call for the nation to rise to this historic moment and unite around America’s foundational values as a source for realizing our shared dreams of a prosperous, compassionate country led by faith and trust in God.

With an unwavering commitment to our core values, exceptional students, accomplished faculty members, dedicated administrators, board members and supporters, YU is reaching new heights. Our leadership and voice have never been more in focus or needed than they are today.

Thank you for your partnership and support as we further our work together to educate the leaders of tomorrow.

My warmest wishes,
